Preventing Behavioral Health Crises for Individuals at Risk, Autism and IDD

About The Webinar

In 2022, Behavior Bridges was chosen by Pierce County to support Behavioral Health in the community through a new project, Preventing Behavioral Health Crises for Autism and Developmental Disabilities. This new programming, fully funded through 2023, aims to provide various social groups for all ages and preventative behavior health crisis training for caregivers to further provide access to services for our community. This program was funded by the Pierce County Behavioral Health Tax.
